LUXURY

Like William Randolph Hearst's world-famous castle on the hill in San Simeon, 48 Via Burrone in Newport Coast's exclusive Pelican Heights community captures the essence of historical eras in architecture and complements each with a host of today's most desirable amenities. Spanning nearly 5,000 square feet, the gracious estate, which was featured during Corona del Mar High School's Home Tour, explores Moorish, Gothic Revival, Renaissance, and Medieval design. 48ViaBurrone.com
